Halloween or Hallowe'en, less commonly known as Allhalloween, All Hallows' Eve, or All Saints' Eve, is a celebration observed in many countries on 31 October, the eve of the Western Christian feast of All Hallows' Day. One theory holds that many Halloween traditions were influenced by Celtic harvest festivals, particularly Gaelic festival Samhain, which are believed to have pagan roots.

Appreciation

This message is about appreciation. Appreciation for all of the hard work and dedication I see all around Crescent Run.

I see it at the Welcome Center which we all refer to as the “front gate.” I see it in the smiles on the “guards” faces and their wave “hello” as I enter the property. I hear about it from my children when they tell me “The guy at the front entrance was so nice to us.” I hear about it when told of possible and real security breaches that happen and the actions the guards took to keep us safe.

I see it when riding my bicycle in the morning as Martin and Nelly are making their rounds. I see it when I actually don't see any litter laying around. I see it when I notice that the various facilities in the buildings are fresh and clean.

I see it when I enter the main building in the smile and hello from Susan. I see it when I peek in the offices and get a warm greeting from Lisa and JoAnn. I especially see it when Cheryl and I sit across the table from JoAnn, Lisa and Susan to discuss ways we can together make Crescent Run a better place to live.

And most importantly, I see it as the residents are working in their yards, are helping to put on events, are enjoying themselves playing cards and sports, are trying to carry a tune on karaoke night, are having fun at a pot luck dinner and are enjoying donuts on that first Saturday each month. But maybe more, when I see or hear about residents giving other residents a helping hand and sometimes a shoulder to cry on.

I see it in my wife's face as we look at each other and say, “aren't you glad we chose Crescent Run to live in?” Yes, yes, yes. Thanks to all of us.

Happy Sweetest Day! October 15th

Sweetest day started in Cleveland Ohio in 1921 as a way to say “thank you” to the special people in your life, and as a way to give something nice to people who had little or nothing. It was a day of good deeds.

So be sure to say “thank you to all of the special people in your life on this day”!

For all of the bookworms out there!

I Opened a Book

"I opened a book and in I strode.
Now nobody can find me.
I've left my chair, my house, my road,
My town and my world behind me.
I'm wearing the cloak, I've slipped on the ring,
I've swallowed the magic potion.
I've fought with a dragon, dined with a king
And dived in a bottomless ocean.
I opened a book and made some friends.
I shared their tears and laughter
And followed their road with its bumps and bends
To the happily ever after.
I finished my book and out I came.
The cloak can no longer hide me.
My chair and my house are just the same,
But I have a book inside me."
